DAY 2 & 3: RINCÓN DE LA VIEJA

After breakfast, get ready for the first day in Rincón de la Vieja. Today you'll be walking down the trails of the National Park Rincón de la Vieja.

Rincon de la Vieja is an active andesitic complex volcano, one out of the 6 volcanoes of Costa Rica. This National Park is renowned for its stunning volcanic landscapes and diverse ecosystems, with many hot pools and areas of bubbling mud on the slopes of the volcano, indicating reserves of geothermal energy. If lucky enough in the park you may get to see sloths, tapirs, kinkajous, pumas, jaguar, and both howler and spider monkeys.

Wrapping up this adventure with the natural hot springs and volcanic mud bath, and a typical lunch in the hotel.

For day 3, you can explore the different waterfalls in the hotel property and go back to the hot springs on your own time.
